First Sunday of Ordinary Time

St Mark's Gospel today opens with the story of the baptism of the Lord. Here, we see God visible and tangible in a defenceless and vulnerable Jesus. It is God's Way to show the light of his great love and to break through the clouds in a downpour of grace to call us all his beloved. Every baptism celebrates human life which is the fruit of parent's love. Baptism also acknowledges the gift of God's life given to each one of us. Today's feast celebrates that Jesus shows solidarity with us by immersing into the River Jordan and by sharing our humanity in the incarnation as God-with-us.

*'By the mystery of this water and wine,
May we come to share in the divinity of Christ
Who humbled himself to share in our humanity.'*
